ADDRESS.

THE extenſive and flattering encouragement with which the POLITE REPOSITORY is honoured, demands the grateful acknowledgments of the Proprietor, who will endeavour to merit a continuance of ſuch diſtinguiſhed patronage by every exertion that may tend to the elegance and perfection of this work, which he truſts is found equally ſatisfactory in regard to general utility, as well as to ornament. He cannot omit this opportunity of returning his ſincere thanks to thoſe gentlemen who have, from time to time, favoured him with the alterations which have occurred in the Parliamentary and other Liſts; and to aſſure them, that every means will be taken to render all parts of the POLITE REPOSITORY as accurate as the nature of the publication will admit.
